TREASURER'S REPORT

Michele Wolfe, Treasurer Ralph's sent a check for 110.43 and we paid the arrowhead bill. $10,845.59 is the balance in the checking account.

ZOO CREW/ZOO SENIOR REPORT

Jessica Jedvaj, President - Winter ball made about $1500, 250 to 300 kids came to the event. A big thanks goes out to the parents that came and helped. January seems to be a better date than December for this dance.

We have sold all 50 of the Candygrams that we made for Valentine's Day.

Senior sweat shirts will be coming soon.

Senior trip will be free, they are going to Yosemite from May 30 to June 2, 2008

We are starting to work on Earth Day, it will be April 18th, 2008 Part of Earth Day will encompass some kind of community service.

Spring Dance will probably be on May 17th, 2008.

June 8th, 2008 will be the Picnic in the park - West Park (same as last year)

ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT -COORDINATOR'S REPORT (Lee McManus)

We had a successful semester. We still have a fair amount of dissatisfaction with the Spanish classes at the NHHS campus.

This is the first year we are teaching Chemistry to 10th graders and it has been a challenge.

The roof is almost complete. We are getting new air conditioning.

COUNSELOR'S REPORT (Alicia Rojas)

Title 1 tutoring has begun - Mon, Wed, Thur, and Sat.

PSAT scores were given back to the kids to take home.

Spots are still available for Valley College classes - being taken at North Hollywood, during the Spring semester.
